

J.H. GUNDY AWARD

The J.H. Gundy Award is offered in memory of "a great Canadian gentleman, an eminently successful businessman, and one whose life was a great example and inspiration to all who knew him". An amount of up to $1,000 annually will enable full-time YMCA management and program staff to complete undergraduate or graduate studies or other specialized courses to further their YMCA career.

IMPORTANT – Please review the information below.

Selection Criteria for Awards

Applications will be judged by the Educational Awards Committee based on the following criteria:

- career plans
- past contributions to the YMCA and community
- breadth of YMCA experience
- financial need

Further Information

- Signature endorsement by the YMCA Chief Executive Officer is required on the application form.
- Three recommendation letters required from people in direct contact with the applicant.
- All application forms and letters must be typed.
